We're looking for a woman who's played an integral part in building a company. She might have founded it, driven the growth of the company, helped it to focus on customers or created opportunities for other people. She is a forward-thinker and a strong role model for other women in her industry or wider. We are looking for a business woman who has had an exceptional 2015.

Please complete the submission under each of the headings. For further information on the criteria, please click here.
